ERIN STEWART RE-LAUNCHES POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE: STEWPAC

NEW BRITAIN – Mayor Erin Stewart (R-New Britain) announced today that she is re-launching her political action committee STEWPAC with a new mission focused on a state-wide scale. Mayor Stewart’s mission is simple: strengthening Connecticut by electing common sense Republicans to office and growing the Connecticut Republican Party in all corners of our state.

“It’s time to grow the Connecticut Republican Party, it’s time to win big, and it’s time to fix Connecticut,” said Mayor Stewart. “As an expectant mother, I feel that now is the best time to double-down on my commitment to the people of New Britain, the people of Connecticut, and the members of my party. We need to always have an eye towards the future, that’s why I am stepping up. STEWPAC, with its new mission, is the vehicle for me to do that.”

Mayor Stewart continued, “The CTGOP needs voices like mine. I need to be part of the conversation and play a major role in the future of the Republican Party in Connecticut. I want to roll up my sleeves to actively support common sense and like-minded CTGOP candidates; candidates who support our core party values, but also redefine what it looks like and what it means to be a Republican in Connecticut.”

“The Connecticut Republican Party that I know believes in small and limited government, we stand for fiscal responsibility and the small business owner on Main Street. We value personal responsibility, fairness, and equality under the law. The party I belong to has values that I believe are shared by a majority of Connecticut residents: common sense, compassion, conservative budgeting and limited – but efficient – government. This is the future of the party that I will fight for and help rebuild in our state. The GOP shouldn’t only stand for Grand Old Party...for me it means Government Of the People,” said Mayor Stewart.

STEW PAC will offer direct support to viable and targeted Republican Town Committees and Republican candidates throughout Connecticut. The direct support will include:

- ✓ Financial investments to Republican Town Committees and Republican candidates
- ✓ Recruitment and training for Republican candidates
- ✓ Training for Republican grassroots activists
- ✓ Party building through financial investments and events

“STEW PAC is going to be a political force for good across Connecticut,” said Mayor Stewart. “We are committed to doing whatever we can to support the efforts of our local campaigns and Town Committees. Our goal is simple: to help common sense and electable Connecticut Republicans win. We can’t fix this state from the outside – we need to hire better people to do the jobs on the inside. There’s an election in November and the time is now. Let’s do this.”
